

Driven by technology. Powered by hands-on experience. VGL is a family run screen and digital print company with a reputation for quality and innovation. From the smallest label to the biggest brands, VGL has the print technology and materials know-how to tackle any project.

Our aim is to keep our customers happy by supplying them with the best quality print produced on the latest technology.

In order to achieve this VGL must remain independent from suppliers and customers and to continue to be in a position of being able to determine our own future by:

- Remain profitable
- Retain existing customers
- Attract and retain new customers
- Invest, at the appropriate time, in new technology to open up new markets
- Act responsibly towards our customers, suppliers, employees and the environment.

All VGL Directors and Managers are committed to achieving the Company's goals through the operation of a continually improving Business Management System.
